Official Biography

John J. McMenamín (R)
Supervisor

As Supervisor of Lower Southampton Township, John J. McMenamín is a true asset to our community. His diverse background and broad experience are rarely found in one individual.

John is a veteran serving in the U.S. Army as an infantryman from 1967-1969 with an honorable discharge as a Non-Commissioned Officer. His career as a professional Firefighter for 19 years shows his commitment to public service, and guarantees that emergency services and public safety are at the top of his agenda. As a former Union President, he certainly understands the concerns of all working men and woman of our Township. Currently he is co-owner of Woodworkers Haven, Inc., a 13 year old company he started from scratch despite having Home Depot and Lowe's as his competition. He knows what it takes to be a successful small business owner. John has also been an arbitrator, a negotiator, and served for 6 years as Chairman of the Board for the Fire Fighters Health Plan with a yearly budget of more than 14 million dollars. So he understands contracts and fiduciary responsibility. He has also served on various charitable boards, including United Way, and The Delaware Valley Burn Foundation.

John and his wife Rose have been happily married for 38 years; they have a daughter Christina, son-in-law Bill and three grandchildren Matthew, Brendan and Emily.
